

The Superstition Mountain Museum is among the most beautiful and unique presentations of history anywhere. We are 14 acres of desert filled with interesting, educational, and entertaining exhibits and events. We are a place for visitors to take a walk and to relax in the beauty of the Superstition Mountain, to reminisce in the Apacheland barn and chapel, to learn and see how the gold miners processed ore in the 1800's, or to travel through Arizona history at the amazing model railroad layout. All of this has been available to the public since 2004, entirely free to our members.
